

Please don't impose the federal "established business relationship" exemption on Indiana consumers regarding Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. To allow the CBA's challenge is a waste of their money and my time, and it infringes on state sovereignty. As it is, I get enough unwanted phone calls. As a consumer, I supported Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law at its inception, and I continue to support it. Thank you.